

Central Fells around Langdale

The peaks of the central fells are a fine backdrop for glaciation and the 'U' shaped valley in Langdale makes an interesting site for river studies. Grasmere is a 'honey pot' and is ideal for tourist impact studies.

There is good access via the A591, but parking and coach access is restricted. Langdale and Grasmere can become congested in the summer.

