

1. Describe exactly what you can see in the photo

2. What might the person in the photo be thinking or feeling?

3. What is the relationship between the person and the place?

4. What questions would you like to ask about the image?

5. How do you respond to the image?

6. What is it about the image that makes you feel like this?